Dear Ms. Chung,

My name is Christopher D'Amato and I work with my father, former U.S. Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato. Our firm - Park Strategies, LLC - Senator D'Amato, and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States. I'm reaching out to you at the suggestion of Eric Schwerin.

We would like to to ascertain if Senator Kaufman might have a few moments, anytime next month at his convenience, to receive a courtesy call from Taiwan Special Representative to the United States, Ambassador Jason Yuan. Ambassador Yuan would like to meet with Senator Kaufman to personally update the Senator on U.S.-Taiwan relations.

FYI, Senator Kaufman attended the reception in honor of the 30th anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act, in the LBJ Room, earlier in March of this year.

If Senator Kaufman is interested in meeting with Ambassador Yuan, we will work towards making the necessary arrangements. Thanks so much in advance for your consideration.

Should you have any questions pertaining to the meeting request, or require additional information in advance, please don't hesitate to contact me via e-mail or telephone. I have cc'd Sean King in our office, who heads our Asia Group practice on this e-mail and you can feel free to ask for him if you like as well.

Best wishes,

Chris.

Good afternoon Kathy,
Thanks for getting back to me yesterday pertaining to the scheduling request. If it's not too much trouble, it might be easiest if you reach out to Sean directly on this as he is closer to the day-to-day schedule of the Special Representative. You can reach Sean via telephone at our NYC office (212-883-5608) or via e-mail at sking@parkstrategies.com.

Again, thanks so much for your assistance with this. And please pass my regards to the Senator.

Best regards,
Chris.
